

The McMichael Canadian Art Collection – in Kleinburg, just north of Toronto – is renowned for collecting Canadian art, including works by the Group of Seven. A portion of the proceeds supports the Collection.

McMichael Chardonnay VQA Niagara Peninsula

Varietals: 100% Chardonnay

Tasting Notes:

Pale yellow in colour this crisp Unoaked Chardonnay displays notes of peach, pear, white pepper and citrus on the nose. The palate is rich with apple, melon, and flinty, river stone characteristics.

Food Pairing:

This refreshing white would pair well with oysters, baked brie topped with a Niagara Peach chutney or a goat cheese croquette.

Growing Season and Harvest:

Grapes were harvested in mid September-early October, 100% of the Chardonnay juice was fermented in stainless steel. Aged for 8 months in stainless steel. Cold stabilized and bottled to preserve fresh fruit characters.

Alcohol:

13.4%

Residual Sugar:

7.7 g/L

TA:

5.7 g/L
